APPENDIX III

Correspondence

In this day of computer-generated direct mail, it is best that your letter to your legislator be personal. You should explain how an issue affects you or the education system of your locality. When possible, the impact which a bill is expected to generate should be cited with statistical data. Any general statement (either in opposition to, or in favor of a bill) is more effective with reinforcing information.

Here are some suggested guidelines to follow:

- Keep your correspondence short. Letters should be limited to one or two pages-typed.
- Write in your own words. Include thoughts, experiences and opinions.
- Keep to a single issue. Identify the subject and stay with it.
- Show that you are aware of and knowledgeable on the subject. If possible, mention legislation by bill number and name. Use the name of the sponsor and cosponsors. Refer to hearings that have been held on the issue, etc.
- Ask your legislator a direct question. This will make it more difficult for your legislator to respond with a form letter.
- Emphasize the logical arguments above the emotional arguments.
- Be cooperative in your approach. Try to provide the legislator with helpful information.
- Do not hesitate to ask for your legislator's oppinion on an issue.
- Be sure to follow up! Congratulate your legislator for positive action, or express concern if his/her action was contrary to your previous communication.
